

Plant Coordinator/Chief Power Engineer – Overview

The Chief Power Engineer will be responsible for establishing a strategic action plan to support the execution of the Area Superintendent's operational goals and objectives. Reporting to the Area Superintendent, you will be responsible for the safe and efficient operation of the plant equipment and processes for Canlin Energy (CE). You will provide direct coaching, guidance and support to operating staff and contractors to consistently meet or exceed expectations in the following areas: production; operating costs; policy administration; corporate values; environment, health, safety & training; regulatory; community relations; and emergency response.

Plant Coordinator/Chief Power Engineer – The Role

- Perform Chief Engineer Duties - responsible for the technical operations of a sour gas processing facility.
- Establish a culture of high performance centered on Canlin's values and business strategy.
- Maintain processing reliability and product quality in the plant while optimizing production volumes in an economic and safe environment.
- Demonstrate and uphold all of Canlin's policies and procedures applicable to the operation of company assets.
- Day to day direction of plant personnel for the safe and economical operation and maintenance of a sour gas plant and associated equipment; making changes to meet product control specifications.
- Participation in the Wildcat Hills budgeting cycle including; production, operating costs and capital projects.
- Maintenance coordination and scheduling
- Regulatory routine tasks and assignments
- CMDS validations and Risk Assessments
- Lead in the coordination of scheduled or non-scheduled plant outages and associated work.
- Participate in the Wildcat Hills Emergency Response planning and implementation.
- Assess safety procedures and compliance.
- Participate and encourage employee participation in the CE safety program.
- Direct and assist in the development and maintenance of operating procedures.
- Assist Superintendent and Safety Advisor in HSE in safety process implementation.
- Perform the role of Superintendent during their absence.

Plant Coordinator/Chief Power Engineer – The Person

- Proven leadership ability to manage a team of shift personnel to a high level of safety and operational proficiency to reach goals and objectives.
- Reside within 55KM of the Wildcat Hills Gas Plant
- Experience in a sour gas processing facility required.
- 1st Class Power Engineer certification or significant progress towards 1st Class certification
- Current certification in H2S alive, First Aid, WHIMIS, TDG.
- Experience with process safety and very familiar with ABSA requirements
- Demonstrate an ability to adapt to process changes and modifications, while always keeping in mind risk reduction.
- Understanding and experience with ABSA/AER insurance audits
- Demonstrate computer literacy and knowledge of automated operations systems.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Proven analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Excellent organizational and project management skills.
- Work well with others in a fast-paced environment.

Plant Coordinator/Chief Power Engineer – The Company

Canlin Energy Corporation is a privately held, long reserve life, natural gas weighted producer in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. Our E&P business produces over 40,000 boe per day from predominantly operated wells, infrastructure and facilities. Canlin's key priorities are running a safe and sustainable business, focusing our portfolio, improving productivity, generating value from our midstream assets and investing for growth and value.

Visit our website at: <https://canlinenergy.com/>