

Contract Field Operator – Overview

The Field Operator will be primarily responsible for day-to-day activities in relations to production, operating costs and maintaining the field to Canlin’s Health Safety & Environmental (HSE) standards in a cost-effective manner.

Field liaison with other operational departments, including but not limited to, health and safety, auditors, drilling, completions, lease construction, facilities construction, environmental, land and other stakeholders such as AER, OCG, producers, processors and landowners will be required.

This position is based out of the Redcliff, Alberta office.

Note: 12-month contract role

Contract Field Operator – The Role

- Assist the production coordinator in the safe and reliable operation of the area’s wells and facilities
- Ensure equipment, facilities and wells are maintained to meet throughput requirements
- Support a culture of accountability
- Investigate incidents and deliver subsequent reports
- Conduct inspections or audits including; ISO, insurance, regulatory, internal, health and safety and recommend follow-up actions
- Manage contractors
- Implement and manage operational controls including policies and procedures
- Adhere to measurement compliance (Enhanced Production Audit Program (EPAP), field data capture, fluid analysis requirements)
- Assisting facilities engineering or joint venture with 3rd party tie-in requests
- Demonstrate and uphold all of C E&P’s rules, guidelines, policies and procedures applicable to the operation of company assets

Contract Field Operator – The Person

- Previous intermediate level of experience as a production operator
- High school diploma
- Able to work a shift rotation and be on call
- Proven ability to lead others and high safety standards
- Valid Class 5 driver’s license
- Certification in H2S alive, First Aid, WHIMIS, TDG
- Excellent understanding of upstream operations, equipment and terminology
- Ability to shift priorities and focus to complete tasks in a timely manner
- Excellent organizational and project management skills
- Ability to work well with others in a fast-paced environment
- Related I&E or Mechanical experience would be an asset

Canlin Energy Corporation is a privately held, long reserve life, natural gas weighted producer in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. Our E&P business produces over 40,000 boe per day from predominantly operated wells, infrastructure and facilities. Canlin's key priorities are running a safe and sustainable business, focusing our portfolio, improving productivity, generating value from our midstream assets and investing for growth and value.

Please visit us at www.canlinenergy.com to learn more about our operations.

Why you should join or team:

- Positive and collaborative work environment
- Ability to contribute to a dynamic organization
- Competitive compensation and top tier benefit package, including a generous Health Spending Account and Pension Plan
- Generous vacation policy
- Support for training and professional development

Field Operator – The Company

Canlin Energy Corporation is a privately held, long reserve life, natural gas weighted producer in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. Our E&P business produces over 40,000 boe per day from predominantly operated wells, infrastructure, and facilities. Canlin's key priorities are running a safe and sustainable business, focusing our portfolio, improving productivity, generating value from our midstream assets, and investing for growth and value.

Please visit us at www.canlinenergy.com to learn more about our operations.

Applications for this position can be sent to Canada.recruitment@canlinenergy.com.

Canlin Energy would like to thank all applicants for their interest in joining our team; however only the candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.