

HSE Advisor – Overview

The HSE Advisor is core member of the HSE functional team and is actively supporting day to day field Operations. Reporting directly to the Health and Safety Manager, the HSE Advisor will provide coaching and training to ensure that HSE practices, procedures and regulatory requirements are understood and implemented in their area. This position requires strong interpersonal and communication skills to advance our HSE culture and establish and maintain a high standard of HSE performance. You will be a highly energetic and motivated individual working in a fast-paced environment and capable of prioritize work effectively.

This position is located at the Wildcat Hills Gas Plant, located near Cochrane. Field related travel is expected, mostly day trips, and sometimes unplanned.

HSE Advisor – The Role

- Ensure that all workers (employees and contractors) conduct their operational activities in accordance with all Canlin Energy health, safety and environmental policies and procedures
- Advise, support and coach field operations in meeting regulatory and company HSE requirements.
- Conduct safety related training and information sessions for field teams
- Support and sustain the use of the Operating Management System (OMS) and monitor effectiveness
- Support HSE Planning and risk assessment activities
- Provide HSE resources and support to operational leaders, attend safety meetings in the field and the office, lead discussions around concerns about safety performance
- Provide monthly reports on safety performance and investigations
- Assist in developing site specific procedures and attend Hazop meetings within the assigned area
- Facilitate incident investigations, advise on the development of corrective actions, and share lessons learned prevent reoccurrence
- Maintain an Occupational hygiene program and monitor its effectiveness
- Support the emergency response plan and exercises
- Plan and lead regular site inspections and audits on field sites to ensure that risk management activities are effective and assess the safety performance
- Participate in internal / external audits as required
- Provide backup support to other HSE Advisors as required
- Assist with the implementation of corporate initiatives and other duties, as assigned

HSE Advisor – The Person

- Strong intermediate level experience with an excellent understanding of Health and Safety legislation; experience in upstream oil and gas environment an asset
- Canadian Registered Safety Professional designation, or working towards the designation.
- Valid class 5 driver's license required
- Excellent interpersonal and indirect leadership skills with employees, contractors and external service providers; ability to use these relationships to influence positive change
- Significant degree of initiative, ability to work independently, high degree of integrity required

- Experience in leading staff in incident response and investigation as well as producing related documentation and implementing resulting recommendations/resolutions
- Excellent organizational skills and the ability to consistently meet deadlines
- Competent with MS Office products; solid operating knowledge of databases an asset
- Must be legally entitled to work in Canada

HSE Advisor – The Company

Canlin Energy Corporation is a privately held, long reserve life, natural gas weighted producer in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. Our E&P business produces over 40,000 boe per day from predominantly operated wells, infrastructure and facilities. Canlin's key priorities are running a safe and sustainable business, focusing our portfolio, improving productivity, generating value from our midstream assets and investing for growth and value

Please visit us at www.canlinenergy.com to learn more about our operations.